

Direct Client Services

1,495 individual clients and 1,551 children

accessed specialised family violence support. inTouch's team provided clients with 13,1558 hours

of case work.

Projects

1,307 people
engaged

with inTouch's capacity-building projects- tailored to build family violence response in the sector and community.

Learning and Development

1,475 people
participated

in training and information sessions, delivered to 88 sector, community and multicultural organisations.

Motivation for Change

126 men

who have used violence against a family member participated in inTouch's Motivation for Change
program.

Legal Centre

701 clients

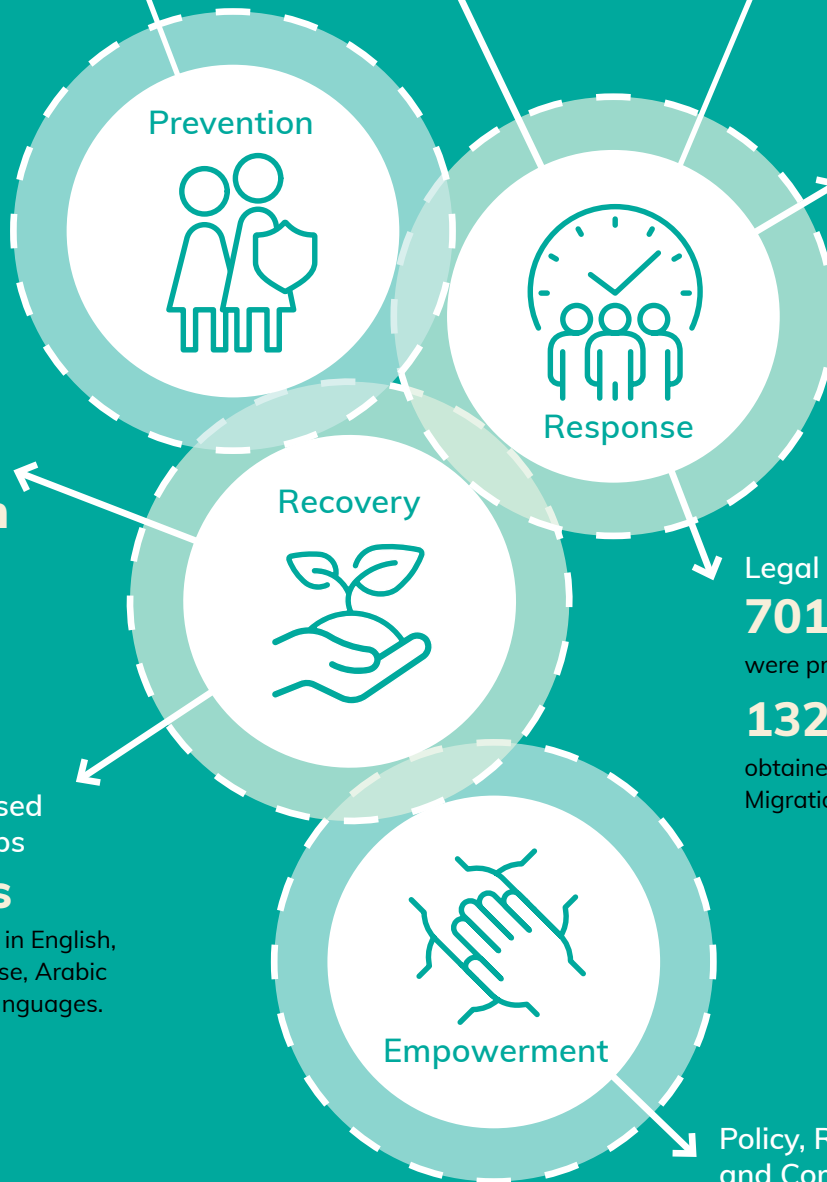

were provided with legal support.

132 clients

obtained permanent residency through Migration Agent.

Policy, Research and Communications

11 appearances in national media

inSpire

inTouch's recovery program provided
community connection and social support to

196 women
and their children

Community Based Recovery Groups

77 clients

attended delivered in English, Vietnamese, Chinese, Arabic and South Asian languages.